

CANDIDATE FEEDBACK: Mr. Thomas Sample

01/01/0001
Private & Confidential

DESCRIPTIVE WORDS

Deliberate, amiable, dependable, persistent, good listener, kind, inquisitive, assertive, competitive, persuasive, communicative, verbal, firm, persistent, stubborn, strong-willed and independent.

GENERAL CHARACTERISTICS

- Verbally communicates facts and information.
- A good listener who will give advice.
- Can use persuasion and facts to win people over.
- Likes to organise and plan his work and will conscientiously see a job through to conclusion.
- Reluctant to cut corners or take short cut methods.
- Self-motivated, wants to achieve results.
- Stubbornly independent.
- Makes decisions within his specialist area of competence and expertise.

Motivators

Mr. Thomas Sample is motivated by security of situation, sincere recognition of his achievements and challenging objectives which are fully understood. Ideally he wants explanations, not restrictions, with opportunities for advancement within his area of expertise.

Should Mr. Thomas Sample have a boss, then ideally that person will be a diplomatic but direct leader, who takes time to clearly define parameters and objectives and then allows him to get on with the job. Consultation with Mr. Thomas Sample should be on a regular basis.

Values Mr. Thomas Sample brings to the Organisation

The predominant strength of Mr. Thomas Sample is his combination of steadiness with assertiveness and an ability to motivate others. He shows commendable patience in listening to queries and opinions. This congenial approach encourages others to seek advice from him. His deliberate, persistent attitude hides a stubborn determination to achieve results and reduce costs. He is capable of persuading others to follow his lead.